My mother is trustworthy, she told me that "you can tell me anything". When I have problems I account on her to help me. But she also is very strict. I could play video games if she allowed me to play. But to do another things like practice sport or watch movies she is not strict. My mom said me "You have to study because is the better to the future". days later if I didn't play videogames two hours, now I would go out with Friends.

I try to do that I said, but It's hard. One day My cousing told me "You prosimed me to watch a movie in a cinema. I said "I had to buy a new computer to study", but them we went to the cinema. In really I forgot to go to the cinema with him and I spend my money in cloths. My mom said "I love the dogs", but When I told her I could have many pets she said "Our house isn't big". Now we have a pet and we are huppy, she is big but it's not difficult for us.
